

There Are Reasons

Because of the desertion of two traitorous men from a highly confidential governmental agency, there will be many Americans asking themselves, "Why?"

I should like to suggest sources where these puzzled citizens may discover some answers.

Read James Burnham's "Web of Subversion" to find out the extent of Communist infiltration in our government. Mr. Burnham shows with clarity the ease with which Communists and Communist sympathizers obtain key positions in the government for their fellow travelers — regardless of screening.

Read Dr. E. Merrill Root's "Brainwashing in the High Schools" to find out why young Americans today are so misinformed on the subjects of American history and government that they do not fully know or understand our basic theories of freedom in the United States.
